

I'm writing in support of Gov. Scott's nominee for Supreme Court nominee, Michael Drescher.

He is a thoughtful and intelligent person who led his office admirably during the last tumultuous year. He abided by federal laws and rules in his role despite the fact that he didn't necessarily personally not necessarily agree with the federal policies. He was / is guided by the constitution. Simply put he has integrity.