shall be not less than the shortest term fixed by law for the offense. It shall be sufficient for a finding that a person probably committed the crime that there is a current grand jury indictment from another state.

Sec. 23. 13 V.S.A. § 4967 is amended to read:

13 V.S.A. § 4967. Written waiver of extradition proceedings

- (a) Any person arrested in this State charged with having committed any crime in another state or alleged to have escaped from confinement, or broken the terms of his or her bail, probation, or

(b) If and when such consent has been duly executed, it shall forthwith be forwarded to the office of the Governor of this State and filed therein. The judge shall direct the officer having such person in custody to deliver forthwith such person to the duly accredited agent or agents of the demanding state, and shall deliver or cause to be delivered to such agent or agents a copy of such consent; provided however, that nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the rights of the accused person to return voluntarily and without formality to the demanding state, nor shall this waiver procedure be deemed to be an exclusive procedure or to limit the powers, rights or duties of the officers of the demanding state or of this State.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a law enforcement agency in this State holding a person who is alleged to have broken the terms of his probation, parole, bail or any other release in the demanding state shall immediately deliver that person to the duly authorized agent of the demanding state without the requirement of a Governor's warrant if all of the following apply:

(3) Except as the State's Attorney shall otherwise determine in the interest of justice, all open criminal charges in this State have been disposed of through trial and sentencing.

***Recidivism***

Sec. 24. Findings.

The State's definition of "recidivism" (28 V.S.A. § 4) is only based upon offenders who are sentenced to more than one year of incarceration and who, after release, return to prison within three years but only for a conviction for a new offense or a violation of supervision and the new incarceration sentence or time served on the violation is at least 90 days.

The vast majority of misdemeanor crimes have a maximum sentence lengths of 6 months or less. Very few misdemeanor sentences are served in a DOC facility. Under the current definition, a person could commit 10 instances of retail theft within a calendar year, be convicted of each one separately, and be sentenced to probation sentences or 1-2 day sentences on each offense -none of which would fall under the definition of “recidivism.”

Sec. 25. Intent.

It is the intent of the Legislature to more accurately reflect re-convictions, re-incarcerations, violations of probation and revocations. In addition metrics should reflect successes (desistance) and violent crime recidivism.
