

H.727 – proposed language from VELCO

(8) specify that the data center is designated by the electric company as a primary load for curtailment during grid emergencies.