

As a Vermont resident, I am concerned that the State of Vermont will be scaling back auto inspections and weakening our controls on toxic emissions. While the Trump regime is scaling back emissions reduction, Vermont should do more to protect Vermonters' health. Vermont can strengthen our inspection process to halt the alteration of mufflers on motor vehicles and ensure all heavy trucks with "Jake Brakes" are equipped with adequate mufflers.

Sincerely,
Susan Detato
Brownington, VT