

STATE OF VERMONT
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Legislative Counsel Attorney

The Office of Legislative Counsel seeks to hire an attorney to handle issues related to taxation and revenue. The attorney will provide legal research and analysis, legislative drafting, policy analysis, and other legal services to the Vermont General Assembly, and will testify frequently before legislative committees. The Office of Legislative Counsel is a nonpartisan office that provides legal support to all members of the General Assembly, regardless of party or political affiliation. Serving as a Legislative Counsel is challenging, interesting, and exciting. You will be part of a highly professional and collegial team that is proud of, and enthusiastic about, the mission of the Office.

Required Education and Experience:

- J.D. from an ABA-accredited law school or successful completion of a recognized law office study program
- Licensed to practice law in the State of Vermont or, if licensed outside Vermont, admission to the Vermont Bar within a reasonable time
- A minimum of 3-5 years professional legal experience

Required Skills:

- Strong research, analysis, and writing skills
- Good interpersonal skills
- Ability to work independently
- Ability to perform at the highest level under pressure
- Strong work ethic
- Ability always to remain professional and impartial while working in a political environment

Preferred Skills:

- Experience in one or more of the subject areas listed above or in legislative drafting, or both, is preferred but not required

Salary will be based on qualifications and experience. The comprehensive State benefits package includes health insurance and retirement plans.

To apply, please submit in Word or PDF format a resume, a writing sample, and a cover letter explaining your interest and qualifications by e-mail to: HRApplications@leg.state.vt.us. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Please put your name and “attorney application” in the subject field of the e-mail (for example: Mary Jones, attorney application).

The Office of Legislative Counsel is an equal opportunity employer, and applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, veteran status, or other protected category.
