

STATE OF VERMONT
SERGEANT-AT-ARMS

NOW HIRING: VERMONT STATE HOUSE DOORKEEPER

The Vermont State House Doorkeeper position is hired by the Sergeant at Arms to carry out the duties of the Sergeant at Arms' office. The Office of the Sergeant at Arms provides the highest quality nonpartisan support and services to the General Assembly in a manner that allows legislators to fulfill their responsibilities representing the citizens of Vermont.

Duties include assisting the Sergeant at Arms with maintaining order and decorum in the Vermont State House and offering support to the Office of the Sergeant at Arms.

We are looking for candidates who can work with our Legislative Page Program, have excellent people skills, and have the ability to be nonpartisan. Former law enforcement/security or educator experience may be helpful, but is not required. Salary will be based on qualifications and experience.

The doorkeeper is a temporary position. The scheduled start date is approximately early January 2019 and work continues to the end of the legislative session, with a week off during town meeting week in March. The schedule is usually Tuesday through Friday; however, the schedule changes occasionally with the needs of the legislature. This position may be asked to work hours longer than 8 hours in a day on occasion.

To apply, please submit your resume in MS Word or PDF format by e-mail to: SgtAtArms@leg.state.vt.us. Resumes must be submitted by October 31, 2018. Please enter "Doorkeeper Position" in the subject field of the e-mail.

The Office of the Sergeant at Arms is an equal opportunity employer, and applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, veteran status, or other protected category.
