Communication from Rep. Donnally of Hyde Park

“Dear Speaker Krowinski and Clerk of the House Wrask,

I write to offer my resignation from the Vermont House of Representatives, effective at the close of day, Friday, January 27th, 2023. This decision has been one of the most difficult that I have ever made. Serving in this capacity has truly been the honor of a lifetime. And, at the end of the day, I simply cannot balance my desire to do right by this role and my community with the desire to do right by my mental health and the health of my marriage and family.

Ironically, serving in this body ultimately solidified the skills that I would need to make this excruciating decision. In thinking about my decision to resign, I kept returning to a piece of writing that I did last year, on the final day of the 2022 session. I recognize that sharing this in my resignation letter may not be traditional. But honestly, very little about me or my time of service has been traditional. So, in the spirit of bumping up against tradition, I offer this piece of writing to you now. I offer it with gratitude for all that this space and the members of this body have collectively gifted to me and our state:

The House floor is many things. When the seats are full and members are rising to speak or inquire, the energy in the space is palpable. Holding the emotional and energetic intensity of this space in my body is often uncomfortable.

As life tends to have it, the moments that are the most difficult to hold are also the moments I am most honored to be a part of this legislative body. I am regularly awed by the collective willingness to hold this shared space; to move together through dense, messy, and uncertain work; to steer into and wrestle with palpable discomfort, make hard choices, and emerge intact.

But, for all the humanity that a busy house floor holds, my favorite moments here are the quiet ones. Crossing the threshold of the silent House floor, I am struck with a reverence reserved for sacred spaces.

The Legislature adjourned last night. After the final roll call and the speeches, after members scattered to their cars and local bars, I returned alone to the quiet House floor. I sat in meditation on all this space has held.

At the end of session, there is grief for all that's been lost and hope for all that we wish to gain. This space can hold all of it and then some. Last night, it held me with grace and love as I breathed my way into whatever comes next. I am forever grateful for this space, for everyone who has imbued it with the utterly human capacity to hold all the truths at once and move forward nonetheless.

With love, gratitude, and solidarity,
Kate Donnelly”

Joint Resolution Placed on Calendar

J.R.S. 11

By Senator Baruth,

J.R.S. 11. Joint resolution establishing a procedure for the conduct of the election of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College trustees by plurality vote by the General Assembly in 2023.

Whereas, in 1997 the election of three trustees of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College was decided by plurality vote, which required one ballot only, and

Whereas, in 1999 the election of three trustees of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College was decided by majority vote, which required a total of eight ballots, and

Whereas, in 2001 and subsequent bienniums the elections of three trustees of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College were decided by plurality vote, each of which required one ballot only, and

Whereas, if an election for multiple vacancies is to be decided by a plurality vote, then a great savings of time can be effectuated, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:

That, notwithstanding the current provisions of Joint Rule 10, and for this election only, the election of three trustees of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College at a Joint Assembly to be held on February 16, 2023, shall be governed by the following procedure:

(1) All candidates for the office of Trustee shall be voted upon and decided on the same ballot; members may vote for any number of candidates up to and including the maximum number of vacancies to be filled, which in this case shall be three.

(2) The three candidates receiving the most votes shall be declared elected to fill the three vacancies.

(3) In the event that the first balloting for the Trustee vacancies results in a tie vote for one or more of the three vacant positions, then voting shall continue on successive ballots until the vacancies have been filled, again by election declared of those candidates receiving the most votes.

Was read by title and placed on the Action Calendar on the next legislative day pursuant to House Rule 52.

House concurrent resolution designating January 23–27, 2023 as the first annual Holocaust Education Week in Vermont

Offered by: All Members of the House

Offered by: All Members of the Senate

Whereas, the Holocaust refers to Nazi Germany’s annihilation during the Second World War of six million Jews, as well as millions of others, including Romas, LGBTQ, persons with disabilities, political dissidents, and members of other targeted populations, and

Whereas, the pervasive level of antisemitism embedded in the Nazis’ political philosophy was first manifested when they came to power in 1933, and rose to a new intensity on November 9, 1938, when on Kristallnacht (also known as the Night of Broken Glass or the November Pogrom), Nazis and their sympathizers destroyed hundreds of synagogues and more than 7,000 Jewish-owned businesses, and vandalized Jewish cemeteries, resulting in the deaths of approximately 100 and the arrest of 30,000 Jewish men, foreshadowing the Holocaust, and

Whereas, in 2021, the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) documented a 34 percent rise over 2020 in antisemitic incidents in the United States, with 2,717 occurrences of assault, harassment, or vandalism, the highest number since the ADL began tracking this statistic on an annual basis in 1979, and

Whereas, even in Vermont's schools, the student sharing of Nazi imagery has increased, and

Whereas, history has repeatedly shown that hatred directed toward Jews inexorably metastasizes and threatens other marginalized groups, and

Whereas, the Vermont Holocaust Memorial, Echoes & Reflections, and other Holocaust education organizations are collaborating for the first time with the Agency of Education to offer a Holocaust Education Week in Vermont's schools during the week of January 23–27, 2023, which coincides with the observance of International Holocaust Remembrance Day on January 27, 2023, now therefore be it
